How to use these guidelines

These guidelines have been developed to provide clear information regarding the use of the Fashion Revolution logo and branding assets.

They have been put together to ensure that a consistent identity is achieved for Fashion Revolution on all communications around the world.

Take care using our guidelines – if we communicate as one we can have greater impact.
We are designers, academics, writers, business leaders, policymakers, brands, retailers, marketers, producers, makers, workers and fashion lovers. We are the industry and we are the public. We are world citizens. We are you.
We are Fashion Revolution

We are people from all around the world who make the fashion industry work. We are the people who wear clothes. And we are the people who make them.

And we believe in a fashion industry that values people, the environment, creativity and profit in equal measure.

The global fashion industry is opaque, exploitative and environmentally damaging and desperately needs revolutionary change.

Read our White Paper which sets out the need for transparency across the fashion industry.

Please note: updated White Paper due 2019. Stay tuned!
We are Fashion Revolution

Fashion Revolution is a global movement that runs all year, celebrating fashion as a positive influence, raising awareness of the fashion industry’s most pressing issues, showing that change is possible and celebrating those who are on a journey to create a more ethical and sustainable future for fashion.

Fashion Revolution Week is our #whomademyclothes campaign in April, which falls on the anniversary of the Rana Plaza factory collapse, which killed 1,138 people and injured many more on 24th April 2013. We encourage as many people as possible to join the Fashion Revolution by asking brands and retailers #whomademyclothes. Brands and producers are encouraged to respond with the hashtag #imadeyourclothes and to demonstrate transparency in their supply chain.
Our focus

In order to make the fashion industry accountable and sustainable, we first need to make it transparent.

We believe transparency is the first step to transform the industry. And it starts with one simple question: Who made my clothes?

We believe this simple question gets people thinking differently about what they wear. We need to know that as consumers, our questions, our voices, our shopping habits can have the power to help change things for the better.

With more consumers encouraging brands to answer ‘who made my clothes?’, we believe Fashion Revolution has the power to push the industry to be more transparent.
Our campaign hashtags

You can use #FashionRevolution for tweets and Instagram posts throughout the year. This is the hashtag for our movement.

Encourage consumers to ask #whomademyclothes when asking brands ‘who made my clothes?’.

Producers, farmers and makers should respond with #imadeyourclothes

Our mission

We want to unite the fashion industry and ignite a revolution to radically change the way our clothes are sourced, produced and purchased, so that what the world wears has been made in a safe, clean and fair way.

We believe that collaborating across the whole supply chain; from farmer to consumer; is the only way to transform the entire industry.

Fashion Revolution brings everyone together to make that happen.
Our strategic objectives

1. Raise awareness of the true cost of fashion and its impact at every stage in the process of production through to consumption and disposal.

2. Show the world that change is possible by showcasing and celebrating those proving that fashion can be made with respect to people and planet.

3. Bring people together the length of the value chain, from farmers to factory workers, brands to buyers, consumers to campaigners, to ask questions, challenging how fashion is made and by whom, and to work towards re-connecting the broken links between those who produce, sell and buy fashion.

4. Work towards long-term industry-wide change so that fashion becomes a force for good and that all business is conducted in a safe, healthy, fair way.

5. To ensure that a tragedy like Rana Plaza never happens again.
Our audiences

- The Public
- Brands, Wholesalers, Retailers, and Distributors
- Producers, Farmers and Makers
- Students and Educators
- Policymakers and Politicians
- NGOs, Trade Union, Civil Society, Multi-Stakeholder Collaboration
BRAND ASSETS
This is the Fashion Revolution logo.

It should be used on all communications.

When sending an official letter or preparing a document, please use the Fashion Revolution letterhead or place the logo according to the directions that follow.

Letterhead Template
Logo

01 / The black panel border should always be used with the logo and the text should always stay the same.

02 / To ensure legibility, the minimum width for reproduction of our logo is 8mm.

03 / When the logo is used in isolation, it needs space so others can see it with ease. Ensure there is at least a margin equal to a quarter of the width of the black panel surrounding it.

04 / The logo is sometimes displayed at the edge of a page. In this case, the outer black line should be outside the page’s edge, all other part of the logo should remain visible.

Don’ts

04 / The colour of the logo is not to be changed.

05 / To maintain the integrity and clarity of our logo please do not change the font of the text inside the black border.

06 / Do not stretch the logo.

07 / Do not write text in the logo.

08 / Do not put graphics or twibbons inside the logo.

09 / Do not rotate the logo.
These are the Fashion Revolution typefaces.

Kelson Sans is our primary font and is used for headlines and body copy.

Zombie Checklist Alpha is used for 'who made my clothes' and 'I made your clothes' poster. To use this font, outline the letters and readjust to make it look like natural handwriting.

We use Space Mono as a secondary font, which is available for free from Google Fonts. Sometimes we use Franklin Gothic in Heavy Italic and Zenon Bold, which are only available with a Typekit subscription and licence.

Photography

Our 2019 campaign photoshoot aims to capture the bold, inclusive and inquisitive mood of Fashion Revolution.

Aim to commission photography that not only intrigues and inspires the viewer but that encourages them to use and create images that show diversity, equality and inclusion in their representation of people, planet and fashion.

Always credit those involved in the photoshoot and if sharing on social media, use our hashtags.

Don’ts

01 / Do not crop the images.
02 / Do not skew or rotate the images.
03 / Do not stretch the images.
04 / Do not recolour the images.
05 / Do not make the images black and white.
Illustration

You can create or commission an illustration to capture the bold, inquisitive and positive mood of Fashion Revolution.

Aim to commission illustration that inspires and delights the viewer but that also shows a unique perspective on the chosen subject. Seek out those who have personal experience with the subject matter so as to enrich the final product.

Always credit the artist when sharing the artwork.
Infographics allow us to show stats and results in an interesting and engaging way.

You can use a range of different information when making an infographic but the style must be simple, clean and bold, to fit in with our already existing range.

Do not use multiple colours or fonts within the same infographic.

Avoid using gradients.

Clothing consumption produces 1.5 tonnes of CO₂ per household per year. The equivalent of driving 6000 cars.

In Bangladesh garment workers earn £4 per month - just ¼ of a living wage.

A garment is worn just 4 times on average.

Extending the life of clothing by a further 9 months would reduce carbon, waste and water footprints by around 20–30% each.

This Black Friday, the USA is expected to spend over $3 billion, an 11.5% increase over last year.

In USA, 10.5 million tons of clothing is sent to landfill every year. That's about 30 times as heavy as the Empire State Building.

Tone of voice

Our tone of voice is the way in which we write and speak, what we say and how we say it. Like a person, what we say is dictated by our principles, experiences and aspirations, how we say it is informed by our personality.

It is super important that everyone who represents Fashion Revolution, including Country Coordinators and their teams, are speaking with the same tone of voice. The more consistent and cohesive our message is, the stronger we are and more likely our messages are to be heard and understood.

Try to make your messages action-oriented or solution focused. Rather than making people feel guilty, help them recognise that they have the power to do something to make a positive change.

fash_rev ✨ Good news! Australian lifestyle fashion retailer and denim giant @Jeanswest have just published a list of 80% of its factories in its supply chain. They join the growing list of global brands who have recently published their factory lists, including the VF Corporation, GAP, Inditex and Marks and Spencer. So it’s important to keep asking the question #whomademyclothes, as more and more brands are starting to respond with real information about the people who work in their supply chains. Brand Licensing and Merchandising

Fashion Revolution do not endorse ANY Fashion Revolution branded products for resale or wholesale distribution.

It is against Fashion Revolution brand principles for anyone to use the open source branding to create and sell any Fashion Revolution branded garments, textiles or other ‘merchandise’ product.

Why? Because manufacturing and selling clothing or product of any kind is not within our core objectives. In addition we cannot endorse, monitor or certify any production supply chain.

If you are planning to use this branding to create any type of product for resale, please understand this is prohibited and we will look to pursue legal action against any individual, organisation or brand found to be using the Fashion Revolution branding in this way.

The font Zombie Checklist Alpha must not be used for commercial purposes outside of Fashion Revolution, or the font owner may pursue legal action.

We appreciate your respectful use of this branding for personal use, digital media, placards and other creative means of promoting the spirit of the movement, and thanks again for being part of Fashion Revolution!
