So, what’s the #haulternative?

You don’t need to buy new clothes to enjoy a haul.

Instead of the traditional fashion haul, where you go shopping and post a video of what you’ve bought, try a #haulternative; a way of refreshing your wardrobe without buying new clothes.

Join YouTube vloggers, including Noodlerella, Grav3yardgirl, CutiePieMarzia and Maddu, and share a better way to haul that’s fun and fabulous, from upcycling to swaps to finding gems in charity shops. Check out their haulternative on Youtube and film your own.

Be part of the Fashion Revolution
We have 8 different haulternatives to choose from. Pick the one that most inspires you and create a haulternative video for Fashion Revolution Week (22nd–28th April 2019).

We hope that making this video will inspire you and your audience with other ways of buying and experiencing clothes. Your voice can help us to change the world, one outfit at a time.
Making your #haulternative video

1. Pick a #haulternative

We have 9 to choose from:
- Love story
- Broken but beautiful
- Fashion fix
- 2hand
- Swap
- DIY
- Vintage
- Hire
- Slow

You can read more about each haulternative in this guide. Learn a little bit about the haulternative you’ve chosen through the links we’ve shared or through your own research.

2. Make your haulternative video

Personalise your message so that it is true to you.

See our 6 steps to making a haulternative video on the next page.

3. Upload your haulternative video during Fashion Revolution Week 22nd–28th April 2019

Encourage your audience to join the haulternative movement!
Making your #haulternative video
6 easy steps

1. Briefly introduce Fashion Revolution in the beginning of your video (see p7)

2. Include some one or two facts about how fashion affects people and the planet (see p8)

3. Explain what a #haulternative is and why you are doing one. (see p3)

4. Show your haulternative. Have fun!

   Make sure you include ‘haulternative’ in the title. Include the Fashion Revolution website in the description box: www.fashionrevolution.org

6. Let your audience know that they can join the movement and become part of the solution. Ask them to try their own #haulternative. Use all your social media channels, (e.g. instagram, facebook, twitter) to tell people about the #haulternative movement, and make the hashtag more powerful.
Hey everyone! It’s Fashion Revolution Week! I’m taking part by doing a haulternative. What’s a haulternative you say? It’s a way of refreshing your wardrobe without buying new clothes. Challenge accepted.

Fashion Revolution is a movement that’s turning fashion into a force for good. It asks us to be curious about the clothes we wear and question ‘who made my clothes?’. It’s a tough question to answer, and not many brands can, but we need to start questioning where our clothes come from and who made them.

Here’s a crazy fact...it takes 2720 litres of water to produce 1 t-shirt. That’s how much you and I will drink over 3 years! Making clothing takes a huge amount of resources. And sadly, so much of our clothing ends up in landfill. In fact, in the USA, about 11 million tonnes of it ends up in landfill. And about 95% of that could have been recycled or upcycled. We need to rethink how we buy, wear and dispose of fashion.

That’s why I’m doing a haulternative. To prove that you don’t need to buy new clothes to enjoy a haul!

I hope you enjoyed my haulternative! You could try one yourself. Download the guide at www.fashionrevolution.org/haulternative and remember to tag it with #haulternative. Thanks for watching!
On 24 April 2013, the Rana Plaza building in Bangladesh collapsed. 1,138 people died and another 2,500 were injured, making it the fourth largest industrial disaster in history.

That’s when Fashion Revolution was born.

There were five garment factories in Rana Plaza all manufacturing clothing for the western market. The victims were mostly young women.

We believe that 1,138 is too many people to lose from the planet in one building, on one terrible day to not stand up and demand change.

Since then, people from all over the world have come together to use the power of fashion to change the world.

Fashion Revolution is now a global movement of people like you.
The average British woman hoards £285 of clothes they will never wear, the equivalent of 22 outfits each that are left hanging in valuable wardrobe space, or, £30 billion of unworn clothes. Clothes discarded in one year in the UK would fill Wembley Stadium.

It is estimated that 80 billion items of clothing are delivered out of factories annually worldwide.

Clothing consumption produces 1.5 tonnes of CO₂ per household per year, the equivalent of driving 6000 cars.

The average American throws away about £72 of clothing, shoes and other household textiles each year.

95% of discarded clothing can be recycled or upcycled.

It takes 2720 litres of water to make a T-shirt; that's how much we normally drink over a 3 year period.

It takes 200 gallons of water to make one pair of jeans, the equivalent of 285 showers.

love story

WHAT IS IT?
No one can replace the beautiful jacket that your grandmother wore and gave to you. Or that perfect little dress you found while travelling somewhere special. Rather than buying new, fall back in love with the things you already own.

Share a story, or write a love letter about an item of clothing that means a lot to you. Check out Collectively's Love Letters to their favourite clothes for inspiration.

WHERE DO I FIND IT?
In your wardrobe.
Download our 'Love Story' pdf for more information and ideas for making your own Love Story.

WHO'S DOING IT?
Kim Kardashian, Kate Middleton and Michelle Obama wear their favourite outfits time and time again. Join Livia Firth in committing to wearing clothes for at least #30wears and love them for longer, taking a stand against disposable fashion.
DJ and stylist Fabienne has made a #hualternative Love Story about her YSL suit.
Check out Mariah Idrissi's Love Story about her Mickey Mouse shirt.
#haulternative
broken & beautiful

WHAT IS IT?
Just like you never stopped loving your teddy when he lost an eye or arm, there are certain items of clothing which we continue to love, maybe even more, when they are no longer perfect; a pair of jeans that are almost worn through but are so soft and fit so perfectly still, a favourite jumper that’s fraying at the sleeves.

Share the story about an item of clothing that you’ve worn in to the point that others may see it as damaged or broken, but that you love and will cherish forever.

WHAT IS IT?
When we wear clothes we adore again and again, they can start to show signs of wear and tear. A rip, a missing button or a stain should never stand in the way of you and a good outfit. Don’t throw them out, give them a fashion fix. Make your clothes last longer by repairing them when they need it. Get creative; make your broken seams, holes and tears into a fashion statement.

WHERE DO I FIND IT?
There are loads of workshops and online tutorials that can teach you amazing ways to mend and revitalise your clothes. Check out the Japanese art of Sashiko Mending or find a quirky patch to cover a hole.

2hand

WHAT IS IT?
Recreate your favourite looks for a fraction of the price by buying from your local charity shops.

WHO’S DOING IT?

swap

WHAT IS IT?
Swapping, swishing, sharing. The simplest way to extending the life of your clothes is by giving them a new owner.

WHO’S DOING IT?

DIY

WHAT IS IT?
If you’ve fallen out of love with a piece of clothing, don’t throw it out, change it up. You can tailor clothes to a different shape, add new embellishments, or dye it a different colour. You could turn it into something completely new, like a scarf or an accessory.

WHO’S DOING IT?
Brazilian vlogger Maddu has transformed her clothes with a DIY #haulternative. Watch Shameless Maya turn her denim skirt into a summer crop top.

WHERE DO I FIND IT?
Visit your local habadashery for a sewing kit or order it online. There are loads of great sewing blogs and tutorials online, which can teach you amazing ways to customise, mend, transform and revitalise your clothes.

vintage

WHAT IS IT?
Hunt for your own unique piece to own a piece of history and channel that Audrey Hepburn, Lauren Bacall or Marylin Monroe look. Vintage gives you personal style and means you’ll be reusing, repurposing and extending the life of beautiful clothes.

WHO’S DOING IT?
Check out Noodlerella and Sienna Somers’ vintage hauls.

WHERE DO I FIND IT?
Most towns have a vintage shop or a good second hand charity shop, otherwise look online.

slow

WHAT IS IT?
Fast fashion and mass produced luxury have distracted us from the beauty and true value of the handmade, from intricate embroidery to a simple, delicate hand weave. Women’s hands have been making beautiful textiles for millennia, and today’s innovation allows us to bring the past into the future.

WHO’S DOING IT?
Some of the hottest young designers are embracing “slow” globally! Manmade and artisanal are fast becoming the new luxury; discover which technique you are most drawn to (embroidery, boro, crochet, lacemaking, weaving…) and follow the thread to your favourite piece.

WHERE DO I FIND IT?
This might involve some detective work: you could start by looking up which artisanal techniques are native to where you are and discover if they are still being practiced. You can then look at other communities around the world. Bon voyage!
